

Practice Profile

Catherine Farrelly is one of the foremost leading juniors in the South Eastern Circuit, a sought after and highly regarded criminal advocate with a busy and successful practice and extensive expertise in leading serious and complex litigation.

Catherine has extensive experience in all forms of homicide and has been instructed in some of the most complex and sensitive cases involving sexual offending of recent years, including some of the UK's most prolific offenders. She is an accredited advocacy facilitator (trainer) of other advocates in relation to young and vulnerable witnesses and has received a commendation from the Assistant Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police in recognition of the way in which she dealt with a very young complainant in a case involving very serious sexual allegations.

Catherine is also a first choice for cases with a true international dimension. She has a wide experience of assisting in drafting ILORs; arguing the admissibility of foreign evidence and mutual legal assistance more generally. She is to receive a commendation from the Assistant Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police and Europol in recognition of her role as leading counsel in the prosecution of 14 defendants in the "Feltham Book Heist" case.

Catherine is praised for her tenacious commitment to her cases and her meticulous attention to detail. Her sensitivity and emotional intelligence make her ideal for cases involving vulnerable witnesses and defendants, earning their confidence in the criminal process and maximising the quality of their evidence.

Catherine is always willing to discuss a case before instructions are sent. To do this, please contact the clerks room.

Criminal Appeals Seminar

22 April 2024

5KBW Criminal Appeals Unit is delighted to present the first in a series of seminars on appellate matters:

The Criminal Appeal Office and Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) [CACD]

A practical approach to CACD procedure: Master Alix Beldam KC, Registrar of Criminal Appeals

Fresh evidence as a ground of appeal (now and in the future): Paul Taylor KC, General Editor of Taylor on Criminal Appeals

Wednesday 22nd May 2024 at 6pm

Inner Temple Lecture Theatre

Master Beldam KC will discuss the work of the Criminal Appeal Office and the CACD, the procedural framework for launching and pursuing an appeal and the practical issues that often arise.

Paul Taylor KC will analyse the CACD's current approach to grounds of appeal based on fresh evidence. He will also consider potential changes in this area that may follow the recommendations of the Law Commission's Criminal Appeal Project (expected in 2025.)

King's Counsel Appointments

15 February 2024

We are delighted to announce that Catherine Farrelly and Jonathan Polnay are to be appointed as King's Counsel (KC). The 2024 Silk appointment ceremony will take place at Westminster Hall in March.

King Charles III has approved the appointment of 95 barristers and solicitors as King's Counsel in England and Wales. A ceremony at Westminster Hall on 18th March will take place where the Lord Chancellor will formally swear in the new silks. The title of KC is awarded to those who have demonstrated particular skill and expertise in the conduct of advocacy.

Joint Head of Chambers, Sarah Forshaw KC said:

"The award of King's Counsel is for 'excellence in advocacy'. That is the standard we seek to achieve at 5 King's Bench Walk. We could not be more proud and delighted that two of our home-grown advocates, Jonathan Polnay and Catherine Farrelly, are to be appointed King's Counsel in 2024. Firm friends, they started out as pupils together at 5 King's Bench Walk in 2000/2001. Both are true stars; hugely impressive advocates with unrivalled judgment. That they are, each of them, also thoroughly likeable and fiercely popular is the icing on the cake."

Congratulations from everyone at 5KBW
