Alejandra Llorente Tascon is a sought-after jury advocate with experience in complex and sensitive cases, both defending and prosecuting.

She is listed in The Legal 500 as a Leading Junior (Tier 4) and has established a reputation as a determined and highly capable barrister.

Alejandra is regularly instructed as sole counsel and leading junior in large, complex and sensitive cases, and has represented clients across a wide range of serious criminal matters in the Crown Court and the Court of Appeal.

She is also experienced in public inquiries, having been instructed by a core participant in the COVID-19 Inquiry as junior counsel.

Alejandra is one of the authors of The Civil Court Practice Green Book, published by Lexis Nexis, and an author on the Anti-money Laundering and Financial Services Training course provided by ABC LLP.
