John Fairhead is an accomplished and highly regarded specialist criminal barrister.

With decades of experience in cases across the full spectrum of criminal offending. He is particularly adept in cases involving forensic issues and cases of a sensitive nature, where his measured and thoughtful approach enables him to draw out the very best from even the most apprehensive or uncooperative witness. He is described by his peers as a “wonderful advocate” and a “class act”.

Alongside his expertise in serious criminal matters, John is an experienced advocate in military law and has represented serving officers and enlisted men and women before courts martial.
